Analisa Mendez (Victim's Sister) Will Grant Media Interviews

Release Date: August 21, 2008

San Diego County Crime Stoppers, working with the San Diego Police Department's Homicide Unit and the family of Robert Juarez, is seeking information regarding Mr. Juarez' murder.

On the morning of July 10, 2008, Juarez was leaving his Barrio Logan home, en route to work, when an armed suspect approached on foot and shot Juarez as he started his vehicle. The suspect ran to a waiting vehicle, which picked up the shooter and fled the scene. The shooter and getaway driver are believed to be Latino males. The suspects fled in a newer, cream-colored, four-door Cadillac DTS (model shown below), and was last seen eastbound on Logan Avenue. At the time of the shooting, the getaway driver was wearing a blue construction hard hat.

On Saturday, August 23, at 2:00 p.m., the Juarez family is hosting a march from Chicano Park to the family's home in the 1600 block of Logan Avenue to protest Robert's death and solicit information on the case.
